Evergreen

Faithless

Running with my rain face on Today I woke up feeling sad I know that you said That one day I would be gladHold the choirs of winter Birds are calling to me and All the leaves I came to love are fallingRibbons on evergreen Owls that pull them apart I can hear you singing 'My funny valentine' Oh you know that breaks my heartHold the choirs of winter Birds are calling to me and All the leaves I came to loveOh you know that breaks my heart Oh you know that breaks my heartRunning with my rain face on No idea of what to say No idea of what to do In this fear that never goesWaiting for all my dreams Waiting for all my dreams [Incomprehensible] for all my dreams Waiting for all my dreamsOh, you know it breaks my heart Hold the choirs of winter Birds are calling to me and All the leaves I came to love Oh, you know that breaks my heartOh, you know that breaks my heart All my dreams Waiting for
