

Jump Into the Fog

The Wombats

What a great achievement it was, to get a hotel room this late,
I bet they charge by the hour here,
The kind of place you should bring your own UV ray,
It's not a big problem with me, love, you don't look that hygienic anyway,
I'm only here 'cause, I wanna twist the structure of my average day,

We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
You know that we hit the ground upright,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
I just hope it's your bones that shatter, not mine,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
You know that we hit the ground upright,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,

What a great achievement it was,
To find someone that shirks such little self restraint,
I'm a non-believer, but, I believe in these dirty little wicked games,
Snakes and ladders are banned in here, love,
The climb's too rough just to slide back down again,
I'm only here because,
I feel today deserves a truly sorted end,

We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
You know that we hit the ground upright,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
I just hope it's your brains that splatter, not mine,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
You know that we hit the ground upright,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,

I've made some bad decisions,
I'll admit that freely,
It's just that life tastes sweeter when it's wrapped in deperchary,
(Ah, ah)
So drop your man, drop your plans,
Drop your five-step program,
Because there's not an ounce of faith in this leap,
It's clear you feel nothing, so jump into the fog with me.

(Jump in, jump in, jump in)

We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
You know that we hit the ground upright,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
I just hope it's your brains that splatter, not mine,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog,
You know that we hit the ground upright,
We feel nothing so jump into the fog.
