

Don't Want To Feel It All

White Lies

You said your, your mind was changing
I wasn't listening up here in my daydream
My love is unchanging
I've just got problems that need rearranging I don't want to feel it all, but know what fuels it
I don't want to feel it all, but don't wanna lose it
I don't want to feel it all, but don't wanna lose it
I don't want to feel it all, but don't wanna lose it Winter, is taking ages
This talking never helped the pain, when the wave hits
Darling, I can't explain it
Sometimes this city hits so low, when it's raining I don't want to feel it all, but know what fuels it
I don't want to feel it all, but don't wanna lose it
I don't want to feel it all, but don't wanna lose it
I don't want to feel it all, but don't wanna lose it No I'm not gonna break your heart
No I'm not gonna break your heart
No I'm not gonna break your heart but I might use it
No I'm not gonna break your heart or even bruise it
No I'm not gonna break your heart but I might use it
No I'm not gonna break your heart or even bruise it I don't wanna feel it all but don't wanna lose it
I don't wanna feel it all but don't wanna lose it
I don't wanna feel it all but don't wanna lose it
I don't wanna feel it all but don't wanna lose it
