Self Inflicted

Smile Empty Soul

You see these cuts and bruises
Isn't this all so amusing
I feel the emptiness
Of just another day in hellMy life is so confusing
Do this to myself, I'm losing
I guess I'm only proving
What everyone can see but meAnd I won't let myself be happy
I cut myself just to feel the pain
And I won't give up anything for you
I'm going down and no one can save me
I'm going down and no one can save meI am cold, my legs are shaking
There's no hope right now, I'm begging
For just one sign to show me
Someone out there really caresMy clothes are soaked up crying
There's no doubt, I know I'm dying
I did this to myself
And that's the part I can't believeAnd I won't let myself be happy
I cut myself just to feel the pain
And I won't give up anything for you
I'm going down and no one can save me
I'm going down and no one can save me
I'm going down and no one can save meThese cuts and bruises are all self inflicted
These cuts and bruises are all self inflicted
These cuts and bruises are all self inflicted
These cuts and bruises are all self inflictedAnd I won't let myself be happy
I cut myself just to feel the pain
And I won't give up anything for you
I'm going down and no one can save me
I'm going down and no one can save me
I'm going down and no one can save meI'm going down and no one can save me
I'm going down and no one can save me
