

Ain't Gonna Rain Anymore

Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds

Once there came a storm in the form of a girl
It blew to pieces my snug little world
Sometimes I swear, I can still hear it howl
Down through the wreckage and the ruins And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby's gone
And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby's gone Now the storm has passed over me
I'm left to drift on a dead calm sea
And watch her forever through the cracks in the beams
Nailed across the door of the bedrooms of my dreams And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby's gone
And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby's gone, baby's gone Now I got no one to hold
Now I'm all alone again
It ain't too hot but it ain't too cold
And there is no sign of rain And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby's gone
And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby's gone
And I'm here I'm on my own She ain't coming back no more
She ain't coming back no more
She ain't coming back no more
Say what you will, I don't care And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby's gone, yeah
And it ain't gonna rain anymore
Now my baby has gone
