Ain't Gonna Rain Anymore

Nick Cave & The Bad Seeds

Once there came a storm in the form of a girl

It blew to pieces my snug little world

Sometimes I swear, I can still hear it howl

Down through the wreckage and the ruinsAnd it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby's gone

And it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby's goneNow the storm has passed over me

I'm left to drift on a dead calm sea

And watch her forever through the cracks in the beams

Nailed across the door of the bedrooms of my dreamsAnd it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby's gone

And it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby's gone, baby's goneNow I got no one to hold

Now I'm all alone again

It ain't too hot but it ain't too cold

And there is no sign of rainAnd it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby's gone

And it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby's gone

And I'm here I'm on my ownShe ain't coming back no more

She ain't coming back no more

She ain't coming back no more

Say what you will, I don't careAnd it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby's gone, yeah

And it ain't gonna rain anymore

Now my baby has gone
