

Thorn

Swandive

Walk all over me
Even though you can't decide
    Look out, (jump back)
    You'll be on your own
    Hillside, slip and slide
Feel the pain, it's no surprise
    Look out, look out
    Thorn will be your love
I felt your hair across my skin
    I didn't know where to begin
    A shallow promise in my ear
No thoughts, no dreams, no wishes, and no fear
    The rose is dead, your face serene
    No memories of things that once did seem
    To be to me important too
You give me flowers when it's thorns I give to you
