

Knock Loud

Neko Case

Knock loud, I'm home
Just sleeping to pass the time
Wondering if you'll come by to visit meTen years have passed
Since you walked out of my life
But late last night in the pharmacy
You were in the line in front of me
So I ran away to hideKnock loud I'm home
I wrote in black felt pen
Took that sign and taped it to the doorIf you come in
To see how I have been
Make sure the door is closed behind you
