

The Hungry Wolf (Live Version)

X

I am the hungry wolf and run endlessly with my mate I see the gutter feed on the foolish outrun and kill the strong at daybreak I roam awake to who follows me I roam I roam I am the hungry wolf and run endlessly with my mate welcome to the dripping jaws the alter of your death at daybreak I roam ready to tear up the world I roam I roam the hungry wolf stares from the hill at the villagers around the fire she loves her mate as he loves her and they live together for life I am the hungry wolf and run endlessly with my mate look across the street, my friend we're waiting for you to slow down at daybreak I roam eyes in the back of my head I roam I roam
