King Without A Queen

Driver, Minnie

Indigo light as the day starts to fade
Still enough light for me to stand in your shade
I have developed a good idea
Oh, of the words you love
Yeah, what you wanna hear?All alone with the wind whistling 'round your throneAnd I know it wears you down so slowly
You chased me all around just to show me
That your head is hanging down
From the weight of your own crown
You're a king without a queenStop the thunder when you come around
And the white lighting that burns me to the ground
You say you wanted it, just not now
[Incomprehensible] should I be afraid
Or maybe you'll show me howAll alone with the wind whistling 'round your throneAnd I know it wears you down so slowly
You chased me all around just to show me
That your head is hanging down
From the weight of your own crown
You're a king without a queen, oh, a king without a queenAll alone with the wind whistling 'round your throneAnd I know it wears you down, so slowly
You chased me all around just to show me
That your head is hanging down
From the weight of your own crown
You're a king without a queen, oh, a king without a queenSaddest thing Ill ever sing
Oh, a king without a queen, king without a queen
