

Pink Frosty

Fugazi

Animosities and apologies
Back and forth we struggle,
Falter, refrain with glue and string and deciphering
We try, try, try to stay together
Despite the pain it's not our first time through nor our Waterloo back and forth from situation
We move to episode
But if we can find some piece of mind
Intertwined the delivery is worth the load
