

Forever Damaged (The 96th)

P.M. Dawn

I'll be a witness forever
You see I've always known
While convincing all these chambers
There's no danger in being alone And save me a gift in your never
And I shall smile for you
I'll tell everyone the sun shines on me
Just protect me like I know I know you'll always hate me
But I got love for you
I know forever's moonlight
So I can dream I'm something special Yes, you'll always hate me
But much more infinite is my love for you I'll be the victim for always Forever that belongs
And for reasoning with all my burdens
Sending tears to cure what's wrong Send me forgiveness forever
Because I swear to God
I'm bleeding for no reason
No, I'm not scared at all I guess you'll always hurt me
But all my love's in you
I know forever's moonlight
So I can dream of something special Yes, you'll always hurt me
But much more infinite is, is my love for you
So much love for you I know you'll always curse me
But all my love's in you
I know forever's moonlight
So I can dream of something special Yes, you'll always hurt me
But much more infinite is, is my love for you
So much love for you So much love for you
So much, so much, much more love, yeah
Much more, so much more, so much more, girl
