NICOS

Nicos

Know I've keep gettin' high
Never get high
That should be to my Nico's
I went to the corner store
To get some food to eat
But I hear Ol' Nico
Straight come callin' after me
He says, "Son, you've got to listen
And I hope you understand
That we've got the best tortillas
And that ain't no bullshit, man
So don't go waste you money
On somebody else, come callin' after me"
Listen to my story
Said, it's standin', oh, so true
Well, my baby's left me
Said, you know I'm feelin' blue
But now I'm waitin' and I'm callin'
By my telephone
And if my baby don't come rockin'
Then you know I'll be alone
'Cause my baby's gone and left me
For some stupid ass motherfucker
Now she's gone
But then my baby's gone and left me
For some stupid ass motherfucker
Now she's gone
