

Elusive Knight

Jay Brannan

it's a dark night, no sign of armor well alright, i'm the one who brought me here i've been wrong, but i've also been stronger so how long can i push away the man i fear?
have you ever felt hopeless?
have you ever been lost?
ever looked back at the person you've become and wondered if it's worth the cost?

[chorus:]

oh elusive knight in, in shining armor can you get through, i've charged head first into my own padlocked cave
oh knight in shining armor
could this be right, am i willing to fight out of my own grave?
the truth is i never thought i'd make it this far it's ruthless trying to believe in who you are
have you ever felt tired?
have you ever ever been scared?
ever forced yourself past the finish line to realize you're only half way there?

[chorus]

it feels right, i've gotta find a way to be brave dear knight, in shining armor
could this be right, am i willing to fight out of my own grave?
