Living on the Run

David Allan Coe

by: david allan coe and jimmy howardseems like it's raining' harder today the rain must of known i was coming' this way it ain't easy living on the run if i pick up my step and pull my belt down tight i can make it to the border by saturday night and it's lonely living on the runi killed me a woman in tennessee i just broke jail and they're gunning' for me i'm on the run, living on the run
i'm on the run, living on the run my woman wanted more than a man could steal from the bottom of the decks where i learned to deal and it got me living on the run women love an outlaw i heard folks say and i'll be an outlaw till my dying day cause it got me living on the run
