

Shades of the Past

Debbie Gibson

VERSE 1:

Red as the roses come My love it never was dark as the evening sky
We let love pass us by I was caught in the middle somewhere in the gray Now it's time to leave that all behind my uncertain yesterdays

CHORUS:
Now it's black or white
Now it's wrong or right
I can't live without you here Shades of the past are long gone
I've got one thing on my mind...

There's a choice to make There'll be no mistake
The time has come around
I'm leaving no middle ground
...let my heart be the only sound

VERSE 2:

Pink is not red or white but you brought me pink roses tonight and I got to thinking to myself oh the time is right
A promise is stronger than a whisper

So I say "goodbye" to our yesterdays and leave behind those shades of gray

CHORUS...let my heart be the only, only sound (black or white, wrong or right) Oh there's a choice to make There'll be no mistake
The time has come around
I'm leaving no middle ground
...let my heart be the only (only) sound
