Catching Fire

Blanca

You could be the coldest star
You could be a work of art
You could be a diamond undiscovered in the dark
You could be the mystery
Thatâ€™ll change history
You could be that buried treasure

Donâ€™t be afraid to show them who you are
This is the moment youâ€™ve been waiting for

You, youâ€™re catching fire
I can see it in your eyes
Just a spark, it will ignite you
Youâ€™re catching fire
Like a flame inside the night
Light it up, youâ€™re burning bright
You, youâ€™re catching fire

If we just believe
Then we will see
Thereâ€™s a light meant to shine in you and me
Never let â€˜em blow it out
Never let â€˜em put you down
Donâ€™t try to keep it undercover

Donâ€™t be afraid to show them who you are
This is the moment youâ€™ve been waiting for

You will never know
Until you try
Go, go for it
You could be surprised
What you dream
Could become your life
In time, in time
