Roleplay

The Hush Now

Keep sliding out of favor
Betraying for the moment
We say no, but still want more
For sentimental reasons
Not trying to deceive you
Just because your love is gone
While mine goes on and onGetting closer
And youre holding steady
As I fumble in the dark
Youre lost dreaming
And Im almost ready
As we stumble through our partsdisguising the intentions
Just to know what it feels like
To dig for hidden treasures
And disregard the dangers
Just because they say its wrong
But still lead on and onOpen your eyes
Open your eyes
But hold it and hold it and hold on longer
Open your eyes
Open your eyes
But hold it and hold it
And hold then let it go
