Broken Girl

54-40

Window at night, when the moon is full
Leaves are blown away and all the lights are on
And a girl with a pony braid, she just turned four
Message comes from far away, time to give moreSo who's around to play with the woman?
She could never say what no one's spoken
And it feels like no one knows, no one cares and no one shows
She finds a way to cut the love from her life just to surviveBad only happens in the night when mama's gone
When he comes to take her she disappears into numb
That girl is broken, that girl is broken
Stay away from strange daylightWindow at night, when the moon is full
Leaves are blown away and all the lights are on
A girl with a pony braid, she's twenty-four
Message comes from far away, time to give more
