

Ain't it Nice in Here

Barefoot Jerry

Ain't It Nice in Here Lyrics

Outside the wind is blowing
Interstate's to and froing
But ain't it nice in here

The nine to fivers hurry
To catch the news and worry
But ain't it nice in here

The politicians talking
The picket lines keep walking
But ain't it nice in here

A newborn baby's crying
And somewhere someone's dying
But ain't it nice in here

It's a special place I go to find
All the childlike thoughts
I treasure in my mind

SHORT BREAK

I contemplate the pages
Of heaven's book of ages
And they all seem so near

The silence then is broken
By words an angel's spoken
Ain't it nice in here

It's a special place for all to see
But understanding it
Is just for you and me

And with you here beside me
I'll let your spirit guide me
To where there is no pain or tears

And then weâ€™ll go no further
And say to one another
Ainâ€™t it nice in here

Cause ourâ€™s is the kind of love thatâ€™s hard to find
The â€œsomeone loves meâ€™ smile
That comes from deep inside

And since the day I found you
My loveâ€™s been all around you
Just like it is when you are here

And if someone tries to harm you
Youâ€™ll feel my arms around you
And ainâ€™t it nice in here

Lyrics Submitted by Rusty Brown

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>