Commencement

Legion

We gather today, with ill invitation
To commence here under the sun, a black congregation
Some know me the hellion, the stranger among us
Some know me the magged, in moments the malign Alumnus
Throughout my tenure, my time in the mansion
A coven arose decedents truly UrantianNow please listen close, divide your attention
An honor presides
The Negus has yet failed to mention
We've altered the premise and renounced the maxims
Low and behold the first row tears the Gog
Alas the sky falls, rain the angels
