

In My Mind

Zhaga

Lost in my mind
i'm naked, i'm broken tears for that life
i'm losing, stolen

where is now what i've loved? where is now what i've cared for the most?
Is there anything meant to last, in the end?

everything falls apart, in my mind swimming this emptiness is getting hard, so dark... it's killing me

existing, not living
just dreaming, in this everlasting void now caring, is killing i'm drowning, so far away from shore the muzzle is loose i'm feeling, i'm starving the hero has lost it's useless, i've fallen there is nothing left to prove there is nothing left to give the reasons i used to have, ain't there, i quit going back through time, re birthing all my life

confusing right from wrong the future is out, come back now and save me from the darkness of my mind the black side of my soul is opened so tempting
