

Thrill Has Gone

Texas

Listening I hear your voice
Together you and I have nothing left to carry on
And I'm seeing you slip away
'Cause you never cared, never even realized Now the thrill has gone
'Cause I can see it in your eyes
Now the thrill has gone
It was you who threw it all away
Now the thrill has gone Wondering as I look outside
Changes all around, there's nothing left here to hide
And I'm asking you, "Have you lost your soul?"
'Cause you never cared, never even realized that I wasn't there Now the thrill has gone
'Cause I can see it in your eyes
Now the thrill has gone
It was you who threw it all away
Now the thrill has gone Say to me what I want to hear
Say to me what I want to hear
Say to me what I want to hear
'Cause you never cared, never even realized that I wasn't there Now the thrill has gone
'Cause I can see it in your eyes
Now the thrill has gone
It was you who threw it all away
Now the thrill has gone Now the thrill has gone
Now the thrill has gone
Now the thrill has gone
