

Ice Cream Dream Machine

Etches

Are we old enough?
Because I'm lost
Stay tuned for next week if you dare
We'll act like lovers
You never know what you've been told
You never know what you are owedHave you held them up?
The last depictions of ourselves as slaves to matter
It never ends but
You never know what you've been told
You never knowHave you ever loaned someone water?It's set in stone
Or it falls around me
Jump into a dirty fountain
We don't have enough time together
We don't have much time
