Long Black Limousine

Keith Whitley

There's a long line of mourners driving down our little street

Their fancy cars are such a sight to see, oh, yeah

They're all of your rich friends who knew you in the city

And now they've finally brought, brought you home to meWhen you left you know you told me that some day you'd be returnin'

In a fancy car all the town to see, oh, yeah Well, now everyone is watching you, you finally had your dream

Yeah, and you're ridin' in a long black limousineYou know the papers told of how you lost your life, oh, yeah

The party, the party and the fatal crash that night

Well, the race upon the highway, oh, the curve you didn't see

When you're riding in that long black limousineYou're riding in that long black limousineThrough tear filled eyes I watch as you ride by, oh, yeah

A chauffeur, a chauffeur at the wheel dressed up so fine
Well, I never, I never, never, oh, my heart, all my dreams
Yeah, they're with you in that long black limousineYeah, yeah, they're with you in that long black limousine
Yeah, yeah, they're with you in that long black limousine
Yeah, yeah, they're with you in that long black limousine
