

Shoulda Been Simple

Marie Digby

Had every word prepared, wasn't even scared
Rehearsed the scene a million times still felt no where
You were just down the hall not knowing at all
What was about to happen when I laid it on the line
'Cause it's written on my face
Though you see it in my eyes
How do you tell someone you love
What's gonna hurt? Don't wanna hurt
This went on too long
I'm telling you what's wrong
Tried but couldn't bring myself
Shoulda been simple
So many times I've tried
The time was never right
It was so complicated
Shoulda been simple
Shoulda been simple
Shoulda been simple
Shoulda been simple
Shoulda been simple
Let's not point the finger, this just kinda happened
No matter how this ends today I wanna leave here as friends
It's not that I don't love you, don't feel that I don't care
We were trying to fly a plane, the wings were just not there
And it's written on my face
I know you see it in my eyes
How do you tell someone you love
What's gonna hurt? What's gonna hurt?
This went on too long
I'm telling you what's wrong
Tried but couldn't bring myself
Shoulda been simple
So many times I've tried
The time was never right
It was so complicated
Shoulda been simple
Shoulda been simple
Shoulda been simple
Shoulda been simple

Shoulda been simple
Remember the day that we said we wouldn't change?
But we changed
'Cause nothing's the same anymore since that day, that day
Shoulda been, shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been, shoulda been
Shoulda been, shoulda been, shoulda been

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>