The Beauty Of Grace

Life In Your Way

Tell me why do you run
You say you're so ashamed
Bruised and broken
Thought if I figured out
The mess you've made that I'd leave
But anywhere you are
It's never too far away
There's freedom from your scars
The mistakes that you've made
Forgiven, the memory's erased
Baby, that's the beauty of grace
Tell me what is love
I'll never hold you
To the things you may have done
You say you want new life
In my arms there's mercy
Anywhere you are
It's never too far away

There's freedom from your scars
The mistakes that you've made
Forgiven, the memory's erased
Baby, that's the beauty of grace
So blow a kiss goodbye
To all the pain you hide
Anywhere you are
Never to far away
There's freedom from your scars
The memory's erased
Baby, that's the beauty of grace
Anywhere you are
It's never too far away
There's freedom from your scars
The mistakes that you've made
Forgiven, the memory's erased
Baby, that's the beauty of grace
