LATELY
Music and Lyrics: Venceslas Catz

Oh canâ€™t you talk to me?
Oh baby canâ€™t you see
That i am in love with your soul ?

Maybe itâ€™s too early
Maybe iâ€™m too crazy
But lately iâ€™m lost without your soul

Lost among the colours of the night,
I try to picture me doing it right

Lately lately

Lately i admit that iâ€™m not alright
Lately youâ€™re the only one who might
Help me

Maybe it is just me
Lost in this reality
But i am in love with your soul

Some say itâ€™s too early
But i say i want you to be
My baby cause iâ€™m lost without your soul

Lately i admit that iâ€™m not alright
Lately your the only one who might
Help me

How can you ignore me for such long time?
I think of your body, but do you think of mine?
I kiss you in my sleep then i open my eyes
Oh baby kiss me

Follow me in my dreams and see through my eyes
Youâ€™ll see my love for you, how I need you in my life
You feel our thoughts collide, baby youâ€™re my lifeline

Oh baby kiss me

Lost among the colours of the night,
I try to picture me doing it right

Lately lately
