

Paranoid

Mystic Prophecy

i'll sit in the dark and wait by the phone but it's not plugged in and i'm all alone i may dance in the rain in the middle of winter but i'm not insane

[chorus]

you think that i must be a just a little bit crazy i'm twisted and different but i'm not paranoid just me, not crazy, no one is coming to get me i guess i had better leave
but i'm not paranoid

i might sleep on the floor when my bed's real nice know five times and ring the doorbell twice lights out and lock the door too if you don't watch out it'll happen to you

[chorus]

i'm not paranoid
i sit by myself and stare at the wall when i'm feeling nothing at all

[chorus]
