

Gentlemen

Me Without You

We never met, you and I
We were always inside, we were somewhere inside one another
And I'll live without you love
But what good is one glove, without the other? Still you only ask about my leaving Oh, but honey I had no choice
And I call and when you hear that heavy breathing
For the sound of your voice But you sit there silent, folded arms and look down as I walk by
My face has changed, you know it's me
You know by the stillness in my eyes
Come and whisper in my ear, "You're very pretty, dear" and, and
"It'll be alright" you're lying but I don't mind tonight So I wander and I wander
Your absence beating inside my chest
And I try I can't remember
The color of your eyes just the shape of your dress And through a garden overgrown
Oh, it's a long walk home
I said I'd not come back, well I'm coming back
And you'd better be alone Sit there silent, folded arms and you smile, as I walk by
My face has shamed, but you know it's me, you know it's me
Come and whisper in my ear, "My dear, my dear it'll be alright"
It'll be alright, no, no
