Blinded

John Miles

I remember things about it, hoping every day you'll call
This can't be, I expected to see, I am human after all
Can't believe that you were fooling, always sounded, so sincere
I can't look back, as a matter of fact I'm still sad that you're not hereSomeone scream, it's a terrible dream
It's all a big mistake
Now, I lost that thread deep inside of my head
It's so hard to never break, hard to never breakI was blinded, yes, I was blinded
And the tender touch that said so much, doesn't need me, now
I was blinded, how I was blinded, when I think about how far I've got to fall
It won't help that I was blinded by it allWalked in with my eyes wide open, seeing what I want to see
And I'm not so strong, so I did it all wrong, now, the one that hurts is me
Can I learn to live without you, someone, better tell me how?
It's understood, we were always so good, but it doesn't help me, nowEvery one's there, all pretending to care, with a different point of view
If a love's that real, then, they'll know how it feels
And there's nothing I can do, nothing I can doI was blinded, yes, I was blinded
And the tender touch that said so much, doesn't need me, now
I was blinded, how I was blinded, when I think about how far I've got to fall
It won't help that I was blinded by it allEvery one's there, all pretending to care, with a different point of view
If a love's that real, they'll know, how it feels
And there's nothing I can do, nothing I can doI was blinded, yes, I was blinded
And the tender touch that said so much, doesn't need me, now
I was blinded, how I was blinded, when I think about how far I've got to fall
It won't help that I was blinded by it allI was blinded, yes, I was blinded
And the tender touch that said so much, doesn't need me, now
I was blinded, how I was blinded, when I think about how far I've got to fall
It won't help that I was blinded by it all
