Forgotten

Callenish Circle

[Music by: Callenish Circle]
[Lyrics by: Ronny Tyssen & Patrick Savelkoul]Trying to hide your face on my shoulder
Cannot change the way you feel for meDon't want to see you cry
When you think of meI know it's hurting you seeing me like this
You will remember this for the longest timeDon't let these images become a curseIllusions in words confusing me
Your voice sounds so unrealDon't tell me you cannot forget
I see future blackJust waiting for my day to come To be released from agonyWhat's the use of holding on, the few more times I'll see the sun
