Anubis Spire

Underneath The Roswell Sun

Tell me 'bout the yellow book

Tell me about the Greys

Tell me how the universe changed

Back in those post war days

Tell me the truth

Now that your race is run

Tell me what you really found that day

Underneath the Roswell sun

Tell me how you lived with yourself

All these years

When you wake up in the night

Do you still feel the fear

Tell me the truth

Now that the lies have won

Was it really angels you found

Underneath the Roswell sun

Tell me what Truman said

Did he think you'd lost your mind

Did he want to use the bomb

Was he prepared to cross that line

Did he say you better be sure

There's nothing left to find

Did you think they'd still be here

This far down the line

Tell me how you hid it so well

All these years

When you look up in the dark

Do you still feel the fear

Tell me the truth

Now that the lies have won

Was it really angels you found

Underneath the Roswell sun

Did you feel any brotherhood
When you looked into those eyes
Did you really think it could be true
When you looked up to the skies

Is Majestic just a dream
Tell us now that you're old and alone
Did you feel anything at all
When they died so far from home

Tell me how you lived with yourself
All these years
When you wake up in the dark
Do you still feel the fear

Tell me the truth
Now that the lies have won
Was it really angels you found
Underneath the Roswell sun

Tell me 'bout the yellow book
Tell me about the Greys
Tell me how you lost your innocence
Back in those cold war days

Tell me all the secrets that you hid
Now that your race is run
Tell me what you really found that day
Underneath the Roswell sun

Tell me how you lived with yourself
All these years
When you wake up in the night
Do you still feel the fear

Tell me the truth
Now that the lies have won
Was it really angels you found
Underneath the rosowell sun
