

Zora and Nora

Evil Cowards

Zora and Nora are friends Skipping through life in the Holocaust's eye While the nation shits in its depends Forgetting to live while they're too scared to die
And it hides what it truly intends Will punish the ones that dare to ask why Now they've been asked to make their amends Ever since Nora taught Zora to fly but They won't stand for it they can't have too many objects in the sky They've not planned for it they're just left asking why, why why?
Look! What's in the sky above?
Hot flying teenage girls in loveZora and Nora see things From a perspective not like yours and mine And they've heard the way the television sings and they know about the silence when they dare to opine Now they circle to avoid all the stings
Of the dull, dull arrows that come down the line
But their lies are no match for their wings Nor the path Zora and Nora defineThey won't stand for it
they can't have too many objects in the sky
They've not planned for it they're just left screaming why, why why?
Look! What's in the sky above?
Hot flying teenage girls
in loveAnd this boy will bear witness he was watching them ascend he was being convinced it was the beginning of the end
