

Lurking In the Dark

King Diamond

When nightfall comes around and the light of day is gone
The dark closes in as the last candle burns out
It's time to send off your mind on a trip
Into the land of dreams and mist
Is something wrong?
They are lurking in the dark
Heavy breathing but nobody's there
If that's what you think, you'd better beware
Is something wrong?
They are lurking in the dark, watching you
How does it feel to be alone in the dark?
How do you know they won't do any harm?
They can see you but you're oh so blind
Maybe it only appears in our mind
Is something wrong?
They are lurking in the dark
