Nothing

The Deadlights

Dont try to hide your eyes
You must wake up your mind
You've seen the world outside
Is this the way things should be?
I've got some news for you
This world can be so cruel
No matter what you do
There will be nothing left for you
Is this what you where searching for?
You're the same loser that you were before and nothing more
So now see the truth
I hope that you were'nt let down
And if you hear my words
They were'nt just meant to scare you
Drift on numbered days
Waste your life away to never see the sun
