

Intimate Partner

Jean B. Gerbier

Intimate partner

I personally began to brilliantly involve in a romance with you to compel you to be my bride. The passionate attachment makes us feel so special to each other and forget about past quarrels, that kept erupting.
I am convincing you, in this pattern of love, like a pair of doves, we" soon become bride and groom.

Chorus

Intimate partner, no more kissing and say goodbye.
I want you to be the bride of my life.
Intimate partner, no more sleeping to go. I wanna be the groom of your life.

Every love affair contains stories, that begin long before the wedding day. When the relationship works at every level, a honey moon party is the only consolation to the infinite passion of love.
I am convincing you, in this pattern of love, like a
pair of doves, we" soon become bride and groom.
