

Leave Me Alone (feat. Kevin Cossom)

J. Cole

Did you have something to say
Or were you just drinkin' again
Did you call me up to see if I was alone?
Drinkin' down those last call blues
And wearin' out your wedding shoes
Wishin' your life was your own Well I been thinkin' about the way
You sparkled when you fell for him
You wore it on your face and your new dress
Sneakin' around on my dime
Finally your spotlight shined
Congratulations I guess Leave me alone leave me alone
All the judges and the lawyers have gone home
Leave me alone just leave me alone
You're not my hell now
Get off my phone I heard about the A-frame
That sits way up on Bunker Hill
You were the star of every room I'm told
Fame is fame at any price
It's just a roll of your soul dice, babe
Just don't get old Leave me alone leave me alone
All the counselors and therapists have flown
Leave me alone just leave me alone
You're not my hell now
Get off my phone Did you have something to say
Or were you just drinkin' again
Did you call me up to see if I was alone?
I cried when you shut me out
But all I feel is nothing now
For you and your heart of stone Leave me alone leave me alone
All the jugglers and acrobats
Have taken all I own
Leave me alone just leave me alone
You're not my hell now
And this ain't your home
Get off my phone

Songwriters

COLE, JUDE Published by

Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>