

Short Haired Woman

Lightnin' Hopkins

I don't want no woman
If her hair ain't no longer than mine
I don't want no woman
If her hair ain't no longer than mine Yes, you know, she ain't no good for nothin' but trouble
That keep you buyin' rats all the time Yes, you know I care no why to the hairdresser
And this what the hair dresser said
She's a [Incomprehensible]
I can't treat a woman's hair wrong
God knows I can treat her hair, I told her no
If her hair ain't no longer than mine Yes, you know, she ain't no good for nothin' but trouble
That keep you buyin' rats all the time Yes, you know I woke up this morning
People, poor Sam, he woke about the break of day
I even found a rat on her pillow where she used to lay No, I don't want no woman
'Bove her hair no longer than mine
Yeah, you know, she ain't no good for nothin' but trouble
That keep you buyin' rats all the time
