The day her dad crashed i could tell by her reaction
He was driving too fast in the fast lane when it happened
Now i try to imagine and help her through the sadness, and tell her it's gonna be alright
So baby please be who you wanna be
I know you're father would be proud of who you're gonna be
So don't let anybody tell you what you're gonna be
Oh baby u can have anything you want from me (anything you want from me)
I can't replace him but baby i'll tryZack:
(to be the man that he would be proud of)Adam:
Everyday for the rest of my life Zack: (to be the one that i can count on)Adam:
