

Waiting for You (version 1)

System of a Down

The unsettled mind is at times an ally
Leaving the senses to fend for themselves
The senses collect undeniable data
About beta carotene and theta waves
The unsettled mind is at times an ally
Leaving the senses to fend for themselves
Then, the senses wanted the sky
All rise, eyes bound
Time feels like a midnight ride
Finality waits outside
Weeping in perplexity's arms
Caressing our smiles inside
The national debt is at times an ally
Leaving the people to fend for themselves
The people collect undeniable data
About high pulse weapons and microwaves
The national debt is at times an ally
Leaving the people to fend for themselves
Then, the people found out the lie
All rise, eyes bound
Now our eyes have been found
Time feels like a midnight ride
Finality waits outside
Weeping in perplexity's arms
Caressing our smiles inside
Waiting to Get you high
Waiting to
Touch the sky
All rise, eyes bound
Now our eyes have been found
Time feels like a midnight ride
Finality waits outside
Weeping in perplexity's arms
Caressing our smiles in
