

Gorgeous Nightmare (Cragga Remix)

Escape the Fate

I've got another confession to make so complicated
Let me try to explain don't want this feeling to go away
So it stays (it stays)
So it stays (it stays)It's the way that you talk
It's causing me to freak
And it's the way that you laugh
That makes my hear beat
And it's the way that you kiss
It's gotta be the way that you takeYou're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh man it never let this feeling go away
You make me feel brand new yeah
We resurrect it's like I've come back to lifeI feel so alive, I feel so alive!
First impressions are hard to erase
It's in my mind it just won't go away
Maybe I'm playing my cards way too safe
I've gotta change (change)It's the way that you feel that gets my body
And the way that you dance is so so naughty
And it's the way that you shake
When your hips go through the bass (bass)You're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh damn it never let this feeling go away
You make me feel brand new yeah
We resurrect it's like I've come back to lifeI feel so alive, I feel so aliveI feel so aliveYou're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh man it never let this feeling go away
You make me feel brand new yeah
We resurrect it's like I've come back to lifeYou're such a gorgeous nightmare
Oh man it never let this feeling go away
You make me feel brand new yeah
We resurrect it's like I've come back to lifeI feel so alive, I feel so alive
