Element Eighty

You don't know the truth so much more tha you knew lifeless and bleeding I'm screaming inside of you
Goodbye
I take a hold of everything you say and I throw it right back in your face if you don't like my reputation you can suck my dick like it ever even mattered what you said to me anyway like I give a shit about you anyway So take me away from here cause I can't destroy this fear that always will be here I am alone in here
Nothing can teach me
No one can reach me seeping through the skin
I'm screaming inside of you

cause I can't destroy this fear that always will be here Well I am alone in here
Goodbye
I take a hold of everything you say and I throw it right back in your face
if you don't like my reputation you can suck my dick
like I give a shit about you anyway
now you will never know me
now you will never know
cause I can't destroy this fear that always will be here
well I am alone in here
