Colony 13

Primal Fear

Striking through the dust
With elemental forces
Keeping up the quest
And all will turn to wrecksHiding in the dark
No one ever sees me
The enemy returns
The land will turn to blackYou hide in dignity
Our time is done
Gone for eternity
When all is goneYou cry, you die
It's your last resort
When all is turning black
In Colony 13
You see the sky
It's the final sign
When all is turning black
In Colony 13Racing through the light
At cyberspeed and silver
You feel it in your bones
It's the final callRed on the horizon
Screams out of the dirt
The final gunshot sounds
You take the final breathYou hide in dignity
Our time is done
Gone for eternity
When all is goneYou cry, you die
It's your last resort
When all is turning black
In Colony 13
You see the sky
It's the final sign
When all is turning black
In Colony 13
