A Mother's Prayer

K. Michelle

Last night I prayed on a falling star
That you'll never have a broken heart
Though the world is cold just remember who you are
And I pray that you never have a rainy day
And no matter what the people say
Even when hurts it'll be okayTomorrow brings new promise
So don't worry bout today
The first time I saw you
I knew my life had changed
I would've been dead and gone
But I found purpose when I brought you home
And even though I'm not there to tuck you in every day
I'm not far away, This is what a mother praysLast night I prayed on a falling star
That you'll never have a broken heart
Though the world is cold please remember who you are
And I pray that you never have a rainy day
And no matter what the people say
And in your darkest hours I'll help guide your wayThose dreams you have I want you to chase em chase em
This bond that we got let nobody brake it brake it
And when I'm on the road and I can't see your face
And this music will never take your place
I love you chase, I love my chaseLast night I prayed on a falling star
That you'll never have a broken heart
Though the world is cold just remember who you are
And I pray that you never have a rainy day
And no matter what people say
Even when it hurts it'll be okayLast night I prayed on a falling star
That you'll never have a broken heart
Though the world is cold please remember who you are
And I pray that you never have a rainy day
And no matter what the people say
And in your darkest hours I'll help guide your way
This what a mother praysYour daddy loves you
And I love you too
Sorry we couldn't work it out for you
But we gone do what's best for youI pray, Oh I pray, I love you
Cause this what a mother prays
