Time's A Wastin

Erykah Badu

Time's a wastin'
Don't you take your time, young man
Keep on drifting
Ain't no tellin' where you'll landRun baby, run, run
Where you're running to and who you're running from
Some people may not understand
What it means to be a man, taking full command'Cause we're livin' in a world that's oh, so strange
Boy, don't let your focus change
Taking out the demons in your range, heyLivin' in a world that's oh, so fast
Gotta make your money last
Learn from your past, ohTime's a wastin'
Don't you take your time, young man
Keep on drifting
Ain't no tellin' where you'll landSweet love and sunshine
If it's all in the air, then it's all on your mind
Breathe baby, come back to the world
Dig up all your pearls, teach the boys and girls, heyLivin' in a world that's oh, so strange
Boy, don't let your focus change
Taking out the demons in your range, heyLivin' in a world that's oh, so fast
Gotta make your money last
Learn from your past, heyOh, baby we need to smile
Oh, baby we need to smile
Oh, oh, baby we need to smile
Oh, oh, baby, baby we need to smile'Cause time's a wastin
Don't you take your time, young man
Keep on drifting
Ain't no tellin' where you'll landOh, baby we need to smile
Oh, baby we need to smileTime's a wastin'
Don't you take your time, young man
Keep on drifting
Ain't no tellin' where you'll landTime's a wastin'
Ain't no tellin'
Take your time, young manAin't no tellin'
Ain't no tellin'
Ain't no tellin'
