Wolfsstunde

Emil Bulls

I'll take you far away
down the darkest highway join my escapades
on the dark side of liferaise your glasses followers of the black sunMeet me in the twilight zone feel free to bring all your friends along see the darkest alleys of your sickening city the hell holes where the sun has never shoneI'll pay the costs of a journey into the night I already arranged our alibis let go abandon yourself to the poison beauty and the bloodjust set the night on fire
on the dark side
meet the beast in meJoin me for a last showdown I need company in this forsaken town let me take you out to the ultimate feast of fornication and debaucheryIf you're ready to dance with the most poisonous snake I'm the one the lord your soul to take
the poison beauty and the bloodjust set the night on fire
meet the beast in meRaise your glasses followers of the black sun Here's to you Mr. Alpha Wolf
to the poison beauty and the blood
to the poison beauty and the bloodI'll take you far away down the darkest highway
meet the beast in me come on just free the beast in me I want you to join my escapades on the dark side of life just free the beast in me and I'll free the beast in you join my escapades come on
