

Prayers

In This Moment

[Incomprehensible]Breathing in and breathing out
My head leaned back, my hands are tied
I stand in here alone I scream
Questions whyDays slip by and nights I taste
These memories run through my veins
Injecting me with one last kiss
Screaming whyThis medication can't save me
And desperation takes hold of me
I wanted to believe in all of this
And I wanted to believe in you
(You believed in me)All I am, all I have
Leads me down these roads again
Take my hand, show me the way
And never bring me back hereDetermination is pushing me
And perseverance is what I bleed
I wanted to believe in all of this
And I wanted to believe in you
(You believed in me)All I am, all I have
Leads me down these roads again
Take my hand, show me the way
And never bring me back hereThese are my unanswered prayers
The time has come for me
To say goodbyeGod please hear me callingAll I am, all I have
Leads me down these roads again
Take my hand, show me the way
And never bring me back here
Never bring me back here
Never bring me backThese are my unanswered prayers
The time has come for me
To say goodbyeGod please hear me calling
