

On Tuesday

Men Without Hats

On Tuesday, you came in from the storm.
On Tuesday, you came and made me warm,
On Tuesday.

On Tuesday, you made me fly, much higher than before
On Tuesday, you made me cry, and made me smile for more
Cause, love is something I adore
On Tuesday.

On Tuesday, you saved my life, I was nothing but a wall
On Tuesday you made me high, I was flying on the floor
Cause, love is something I adore
On Tuesday.

It was only make believe, then along came Tuesday
Changed everything, on Tuesday
On Tuesday, you wave goodbye, you step into the storm
On Tuesday, you save my life, a smile will keep me warm
On Tuesday, you made me cry, like a child being born
On Tuesday, you made me high, I'll be flying ever more
Cause, love is something I adore
On Tuesday
It was only make believe.
Then along came Tuesday
Changed everything
On Tuesday.....
