Want It Back

Amanda Palmer & The Grand Theft Orchestra

Hearts on a string like an older-fashioned phone can Bang ringy ring and you think youre gonna get some Thing you can bring to a party at your wake not Thinking of the thing that you pay back when you take it
Take itLike rats in a cage pushed the button got the Shock
TrickSnickers in your bag
Had your number but i lost it
Bets are all off youre a lily-livered giver indie
In the hidden costs youre a sucker and you winIt doesnt matter if you want it back
Youve given it away
Youve given it away
It doesnt matter if you want it back
Youve given it away
Away away away away away ohHes already on the outskirts
Im still pulling at his sweatshirt
He says fate is not a factor
Im in love with every actorSoOnce when your gone and i wanna do it backwards
Just like the song were addicted to the l-word
Up past your head down your back around your ankles
Ready for attack youre upstaged and then youre strangledCringe like youre cursed with your wrecking ball-y necklace
I saw it first and i crushed it with my hamfist
High for the contest whos the better
Not see
Eye to eye to eye and now youre blind and you cant
Catch meCatch me
If you can
(hes already on the outskirts)
If you can
(im still pulling on his sweatshirt)
If you can
(he says fate is not a factor)
If you can
(im in love with every actor)It doesnt matter if you want it back youve given it away
Youve given it away
It doesnt matter if you want it back youve given it away
Youve given it awayHes already on the outskirts
Im still pulling at his sweatshirt

He says fate is not a factor
Im in love with every actorI will let you go if you will let some
I will let you go if you will let somebody
I will let you go if you will let somebody love you
I will let you go if you will let somebody love you like
I will let you go if you will let somebody love you like i do
